

Valuing diversity

People from different cultures experience the world differently. People often take notice only of what is important to them or what affects the way they live.

1 Match the labels in the list below with the photographs from the Jacaranda Primary Atlas Second Edition that are listed in the following table. (You can use a label more than once. In fact, you can use the same label for all six photographs if you think this is best.)

scruffy	loathing	modern	hated
tired	awkward	happy	embarrassed
sad	strong	celebrating	involved
caring	unhurried	bored	poor
angry	united	bitter	busy
disadvantaged	religious	rich	weak

Photo description	Page in atlas	Label
Hand on a rock carving	36
Children and dragon	38
School students	40
Mbuti children	99
Shoppers in a street	83
Aid worker with children	103

2 a Look carefully at the label you have given each photograph. Have you used only negative words for some types of photograph? Why did you choose such words?

.....

.....

.....

b Do some types of photograph have only positive words? Why did you choose such words?

.....

.....

.....